R.A.F. Blasts Nazi Transport On Continent

LONDON, April 20.—(CP)—The Luftwaffe radioed off the air shortly after noon today, Reuters New Agency reported, indicating that Allied bombers might be observing Hitler's 54th birthday by a daylight bombing of European targets. The Danish radio station at Kalundborg went off the air at 12:30 p.m.

LONDON, April 20.—(CP)—R.A.F. light bombers and fighters struck again last night at the creaking German transport system over a big stretch of occupied Europe and Germany.

The air ministry news service said that R.A.F. fighter ships rained down on rail lines and roads from Brittany, through northern France and Holland, and into Northwestern Germany, and whirling bombers attacked shipping in the channel.

RCA headquarters announced that Monquies, Boston and Beauport, the Canadian forces in Britain were among the fighters command aircraft which carried out these attacks.

NO BIG BOMBERS USED

Of the two aircraft missing from the night's missions, one was a Spitfire.

The force's big bombers were believed to have been in their bases during the night.

British, meanwhile, enjoyed a restless night.

A Reuters report from its correspondent in Zurich, Switzerland, said that about 800 persons were killed in the R.A.F. massive raid Friday night on the Skoda works at Pilsen, in German-occupied Czechoslovakia.

Everything within an area of 50 acres appears to have been destroyed.

German engineers, it was said, expected it would take from three to five months to get the Skoda works running again, and then only on a restricted scale.

The Germans, meanwhile, were reported to have stepped up their reconnaissance by day and night, an indication they are attempting to keep close watch on invasion preparations in Britain.

Both R.A.F. and American aircraft have been reconnoitered extensively in recent weeks.

Calgary Tax Rate Is Set at 42 1/2 Mills

CALGARY, April 20.—(CP)—A 1943 tax rate of 42 1/2 mills, following a reduction of 1 1/2 mills from the 1942 rate, was struck by city council at a special meeting yesterday.

An attempt to hold the tax rate at the 1942 level of 44 mills to provide for a reduction in street car fares and electric light and water rates was supported by four non-council government and taxpayers' association members and failed to pass.

Three U.S. Doctors Aid Lone Canadian

VICTORIA, April 20.—(CP)—Two United States army doctors and one from the United States public health service are assisting the lone Canadian medical man in caring for the sick of that northern British Columbia community.

Some days ago Glen Brown, librarian at the B.C. legislature for Peace River, wrote Provincial Secretary, Pearson, that Dawson Creek, territory west of the northern terminus of the Alaska Highway, had but one overworked doctor, Mr. Braden, required and unable to cope with the serious situation.

The provincial health department turned the matter over to the medical government committee of British Columbia, which cooperates with the College of Physicians and Surgeons. This committee, it was said last night, is working on the problem.

The air ministry news service said that R.A.F. fighter ships rained down on rail lines and roads from Brittany, through northern France and Holland, and into Northwestern Germany, and whirling bombers attacked shipping in the channel.

RCA headquarters announced that Monquies, Boston and Beauport, the Canadian forces in Britain were among the fighters command aircraft which carried out these attacks.

Idle Miners Now Engaged In Gardening

Edmonton Bulletin Ottawa Bureau
DUMMELLER, April 20.—
There may be a shortage of coal in this Dummeller valley, where seventeen miners are idle and 2105 miners on strike but there will be no vegetable shortage.

Hundreds of the striking miners are taking advantage of the spring weather by working in their gardens. Some single men who have no homes have hired themselves out preparing gardens for others.

SITUATION UNCHANGED
The strike situation was still unchanged Monday night. The strike committee urged Coal Controller McGreevey Stewart, asking for a thorough government investigation into the strike.

They say that there is discrimination against one of their men and, having the war effort in mind they desire the curtailment of production.

Strike negotiations are expected to be transferred to Calgary Wednesday. The two board members of sub district one and two, who are members of the strike committee, have been called to Calgary, where they will meet with the executive of the U.M.W.A.

There have been no negotiations whatever to settle the strike since it started Friday. It was declared illegal by the executive of the U.M.W.A. and the men were ordered to return to work. This was ignored as was the order of the Dominion Fair Wage Officer F. E. Harrison.

NO PICKETING
This has been the most solid strike staged here, although picketing of mines has not been necessary. It is quiet in the district. Miners are walking about town and interested in the various window displays. No gathering on corners to discuss the strike has taken place. The strike committee meetings do not last long and are also very quiet.

Index Figures On Food Prices Claimed False protest against such an unfair situation.

The resolution protests also "That the government has deceived manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers by recompute their losses on commodities sold in order to prevent price rises, and that they have allowed certain increases in many items, but they have not allowed wages to be opened to meet conditions which every worker knows are grossly unfair under present circumstances."

BELOW SELLING PRICES
Moving that a special committee be set up to investigate the accuracy of the Labor Gazette figures. Carl E. Berg, general representative for the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, said that the committee would find that the misleading index on commodities would be considerably below the selling prices of such articles.

He said not only have commodity prices increased but the quality of the goods supplied has been decreased. "It is a matter of knowledge that bacon supplied to the Canadian public at present is well below the first class grade of previous years, but the price of the commodity has been substantially advanced."

"Wool socks are being sold at higher prices here and but the quality is not there. The socks now being sold contain about 40 per cent wool, and 60 per cent cotton. The quality of the wool is not as good as that put into the pre-war socks," Mr. Berg charged.

Mr. Berg quoted figures from the Labor Gazette of January 1939 and January 1942, to show that the increase in the cost of living had greatly exceeded the 12.9 per cent announced by the government.

POTATOES $2.50 BAG
Potatoes, Mr. Berg said, are selling at 10 cents a bag in 1939 and the quality of the wool is not as good as that put into the pre-war socks."

Mr. Berg quoted figures from the Labor Gazette of January 1939 and January 1942, to show that the increase in the cost of living had greatly exceeded the 12.9 per cent announced by the government.

RETURNED SURPLUS
Mr. Berg said recently a fairly small contractor came to his office and showed the minister a statement of his business, said he did not wish to make excess profits and returned a large cheque. There were many other cases of contractors themselves calling attention to the fact that the margin of profit being earned on their contracts was too high.

Daily War Map—Exclusively in The Edmonton Bulletin

We reproduce herewith a map of the central and southern sectors of the Russian front, not because any startling developments have brought it back to the centre of public interest, but because the Germans intend shortly to make it so. It will be seen that, as the allies stand on their source as far east as Voroshilovgrad, but the air strikes upon territory occupied by the elbow of the river, and hold bridgeheads across it at its middle reaches. Moreover, Soviet forces still hold most of the railway line between Orel and Kharkov, and many of the feeder lines west and south of Kursk. The only advantage left to the enemy which he did not possess at the beginning of last summer is a bridgehead on the Taman peninsula leading from the Crimea to the Caucasus, and this he is in danger of losing.

Howe Informs House: Rigid Supervision Prevents Undue Profits on Munitions

OTTAWA, April 20.—(CP)—Munitions Minister Howe said yesterday in the House of Commons that with tax collectors, inspectors and accountants watching them it is difficult for contractors to make an unduly high profit on munitions and keep it.

"The bill to extend and amend the munitions and supply department act is considered in committee and given third reading. While the minister's assertion that undue profits are not made met with no particular challenge, the organization of the department was criticized by J. F. Pouliot, Liberal member for St. John's, Nfld., C.C.F. leader. Mr. Pouliot claimed the organization was illogical and confusing."

QUESTIONS CONTROL
Mr. Caldwell thought the department was too far removed from the control of parliament and the quality is not there. The socks now being sold contain about 40 per cent wool, and 60 per cent cotton. The quality of the wool is not as good as that put into the pre-war socks."

Mr. Berg quoted figures from the Labor Gazette of January 1939 and January 1942, to show that the increase in the cost of living had greatly exceeded the 12.9 per cent announced by the government.

See Battle For Civil Rights Following War

CALGARY, April 20.—(CP)—Members of the Calgary Bar Association and guests from towns and cities in Southern Alberta attended a banquet last night in honor of G. H. Atkins, K.C., Winnipeg, who is visiting Calgary. Mr. Atkins, K.C., Winnipeg, K.C. attorney general of British Columbia, president and vice-president of the Canadian Bar Association.

In his address the president of the Canadian Bar Association warned that the infringements on public rights necessary during the "present struggle" should be vigilantly watched by the people to assure that they are not continued indefinitely.

Mr. Atkins declared the concessions of the people of their civil rights during the war was "a road that will not be easy to recover after the war."

It was a common problem, he said, that he did not profess to have any knowledge of what post-war conditions would be like. He warned that there would be many "shouts for the scrapping of present laws and their substitution for post-war planned laws," which would mean the possible sacrifice of much that was set through long struggles.

Capt. Bright subsequently became chief bridge engineer in Alberta, then came to British Columbia where he was chief engineer in charge of the construction of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway. He went overseas in 1915 as paymaster of the 67th battalion.

Baby Is Thrown From 4th Floor To Escape Fire

BOSTON, April 20.—AP.—A baby girl—tossed from a fourth-story window of a tenement house—yesterday was caught by a taxicab driver during a fire that threatened the lives of three other members of her family. Mrs. Constance Saks, 34, dropped her 20-month-old daughter, Ann, into the arms of James Campbell, 27, who had run from the cab when he saw the structure in flames.

Wheat Payments To Be Made Soon

REGINA, April 20.—(CP)—Hon. James G. Gardiner, federal minister of agriculture, said in an interview here yesterday that wheat acreage reduction payments to approximately 2,000 grain farmers, held up through a technicality in operation of the wheat acreage reduction act, will be sent out soon.

The payments will be sent out when amendments to the act have received royal assent.

"Farmers waiting for acreage reduction payments on wheat seed acreage in 1942 and on grain seeded prior to 1942 will be receiving their money immediately. The act to amend the wheat acreage reduction act receives assent on the last day of the session before the Easter recess." The house of commons is expected to adjourn Wednesday for the Easter recess.

The act to amend the acreage reduction act clarifies the basis of payment in respect to wheat acreage reduction in 1942 and provided that payments be made for acreage reduction in 1942.

Amazing Story of Fortitude Seamen, 83 Days on Life Raft, Reveal Grim Details of Ordeal

These two Netherlands merchant sailors spent 83 days on a life raft between the time their ship was sunk and they were rescued. They drifted 2,200 miles from a point 200 miles off South America, past the equator, to the northern tip of that continent, where they were picked up. Their amazing story of fortitude and hardships was told Monday upon their arrival in Miami from South America.—EDITOR.

Five U-Boats Believed Sunk In Fierce Four-Day Battle

THE GREMLINS

ON BOAT THE OLD KNIGHT IS STILL TRACKING NEW ENEMY. FIRE LOOK AT THE BALL GAME!

By FOSTER BARCLAY
LONDON, April 20 (CP)—A four-day battle on the Atlantic between planes and U-boats, in which R.A.F. coastal command planes made 19 attacks, a pack of submarines which had cut into two convoys travelling from the United States to England was reported today by the air ministry news service.

Some ships were lost before the convoys got within the air patrol's range, but the number was not announced.

Underwater Liberators and Flying Fortresses dropped hundreds of tons of depth charges across hundreds of miles of the Atlantic. The planes continued to fire on the submarines, which were seen in the air.

Although no "kills" were claimed, the news service said there was a greater surface presence in the area, and that the submarines were probably damaged in the action that was reported today.

One of the patrol planes sighted a submarine and attacked it three times within an hour. It was said that the submarine was seen in the air, and that it was probably damaged.

The battle was to hot the U-boats surfaced in daylight to charge batteries or use their greater surface speed to get to the convoys. They were seen in the air, and that it was probably damaged.

Later, Howell made another attack, this time on a surfaced submarine travelling about 10 miles towards the convoys.

As we attacked, the men at the controls went as far as a government head could go, in warning the Canadian people that great things are about and that they must be ready to fight.

Howell said the U-boat seemed to submerge so quickly that he was sure he had hit it. He said that the submarine was seen in the air, and that it was probably damaged.

He said four depth charges were dropped, and that the submarine was seen in the air, and that it was probably damaged.

Getting Around with Jack DeLong

The U.S. Army Air Force probably took on a brand new job when bombs were dropped on two ice jams in the Athabasca river over the weekend. There can be no doubt that the bombing helped greatly to avert the danger of a serious flood that might have proved extremely costly. One of the strange features of a unique episode is the fact the plane and crew that carried out the bombing mission was from far away Texas. It is another example of the truly baffling flexibility of the modern airplane. In a matter of hours a plane of this kind can be hurrying from the Continued on Page Sixteen

Automobile Licenses Hold Place in Comparison Last Year Despite Rationing

Despite tightening of regulations concerning operation of passenger motor vehicles, due to gas and tire rationing, number of license plates issued by the Edmonton branch of the Alberta Motor Association shows only a slight decrease over the number issued for 1942.

A report issued Tuesday by officials of the A.M.A. has revealed that 2,814 license plates have been issued by the offices here from Jan. 1 to April 19 of this year, inclusive.

In the same period of 1942 there were 2,805 plates issued. Drivers' licenses issued in the same period are also only slightly down over last year. To date this year, 3,552 drivers' licenses have been issued. In the same period of last year the number was 3,547.

GREATEST DECREASE
Number of gas ration books issued reveals the greatest decrease this year. The motor association has issued 2,271 A ration books from Jan. 1 until April 19, in comparison to 4,735 last year in the same period.

But the decrease in issuance of ration books is accounted for by the fact that the A.M.A. has this year issued only A ration books for passenger car operators. New all commercial vehicle operators and B and H operators receive ration books from the office of the oil controller.

DO NOT USUALLY "GO TO THE DEVIL"

The popular idea that ministers' sons go to the bad is based upon comparatively few cases. A recent study of the men listed in "Who's Who" by Prof. Stephen S. Wise of Indiana University, revealed the fact that ministers' sons become ministers, or go forth in other vocations, rather than "farmers' sons" eight times as often than skilled laborers' sons, and several times as often as other professional men's sons. Havelock Ellis made a similar study in England and found that the eminent children of the clergy were considerably outnumbered those of lawyers, doctors and army officers at the outset.

Postal Official Is Likely Candidate For Liberal Post

OTTAWA, April 20.—(CP)—The Evening Citizen said yesterday that the name of N. H. MacDonald of the post office department, Ottawa, was mentioned in Liberal circles as the likely choice for the secretaryship of the National Liberal Federation. He was formerly private secretary to Secretary of State Norman McLaughlin.

The newspaper said James Gray Turgeon, Liberal member of parliament for Carleton Place, B.C., has also been mentioned for the position, but it is understood that Mr. MacDonald is the more probable candidate.

ONLY BEGINNING

I assure you, that I have only begun to tell you the story of the colossal money racket that we are so foolishly tolerating. Here is another line of reasoning:

Money is essentially legalized under the present system as a claim upon goods or services. Instead of distributing goods as in the old days, by barter, money makes it possible to distribute claims on goods—not like tickets to a theatre or a train, or for milk. They are specific. Money claims are general in use. The person who holds them can get what he wants

Kiwanians Hear Requirements Of Agriculture

Agriculture is not dramatic as the production of the implements of war. Agricultural research is for construction purposes, rather than for destruction. Robert Sinclair, dean of the faculty of agriculture, University of Alberta, told members of the Kiwanis Club at their weekly luncheon at the Macdonald hotel.

Farmers, he said, have a better appreciation of agricultural research today than they had 20 or 30 years ago. At that time agricultural research was a "new-fangled idea."

Today, most agrarians are up-to-date. They are interested and ask questions concerning research. There are some who pay no attention to experimental results.

Science and the farmer have grown closer together in 10 years than in 100 years. He gave commercial advertising much credit for acquainting agriculturists with technical terms. Young men who enter research work often had spent their earlier years on farms.

Science is always creating something new to help nature, new types of grain are evolved, types which withstand the ravages of drought, rust, smut. Each new type is for the purpose of giving a better mill, quality grain. There is no rest, for as plants become susceptible to some new disease or possibly blight, development against the new enemy must be made.

SLOW JOB

Animal breeding is a slow uphill job, said the speaker, telling his listeners that animals must be made adaptable to this climate.

Sheep must be made vigorous and yet produce a heavy, fine fleece. The greatest strides have been made in animal nutrition. Better and more balanced feedings would mean a tremendous saving in food.

Regarding soil research, Dean Sinclair said a greater contribution would be made in the next few years. Soil research, he added, shows soil limitations. Of commercial research of agriculture.

Labor Unions Protest Delay Wage Parleys

tion was taken to meet the wage increase demands, that men and women workers in city packing plants would leave that work in large numbers. He added that the labor situation in some of the city plants was very acute at present.

He said that the wage increases asked for were reasonable and should be granted. The members of the union were asking for action, and it was with difficulty they are being restrained from declaring a general strike, he said.

IRKED BY DELAYS

Alex. Young, business agent for the Beverage Workers' union, said that the delay in the Trades and Labor Council was a hindrance to the workers.

He said that if the delay continues, the union would seek national action.

settlement of any wage disputes. Instead of speedy decisions, he added, the experience of his union was delay and obstruction.

This delay was creating a serious situation, he said, and if continued the workers would have no other course open to them other than the strike to gain their rights.

He said that members of the union were loath to take strike action, but they saw no other way of bringing their case before the public, and certainly it appeared to be the only way in which action could be obtained from the Regional War Labor Board. He urged the Trades and Labor Council take immediate action to place the situation before the responsible authorities.

Carl E. Berg, special representative of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, suggested that the Trades and Labor Council appoint a committee to interview Hon. Ernest C. Manning, minister of trade and industry, with a view to having the request of the two unions dealt with as speedily as possible.

He said that if the delay continues, the union would seek national action.

ing into labor relations and conditions in Canada.

Mr. Berg said that the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada had pledged itself to the government of Canada to promote the nation's war effort to the limit, and to avoid strikes and industrial disputes.

"We must do all in our power to prevent strikes," he stated, "and it is the duty of labor union officials to explore every avenue of settlement before calling a strike. In these cases, he said, the workers would be well advised to await the results of the representations of the special committee appointed by the trades council before taking any action."

He said that the recent strike action taken in Quebec on a very flimsy excuse had increased public opinion against strikes, and labor leaders would be well advised to see to it that every avenue of settlement had been explored before the strike was taken.

"Labor today is facing a very serious situation," he stated, "and the labor union is not good throughout the country and the daily-daily methods of the Dominion government in dealing with labor disputes is far from provoking labor into the position that its responsible officers will have to go to the government and withdraw its no-strike pledge."

He said that if the delay continues, the union would seek national action.

Dowd has been appointed chief medical officer of the Canadian National Railways system in succession to Dr. John McCombe who has retired after many years of valued service. Dr. McCombe will act in the capacity of consultant to the system medical department. These changes were announced yesterday by H. C. Vaughan, chairman and president of the National Railways, and are immediately effective.

cause the government has not seen fit to deal fairly with labor."

REALIZING UNREST

"It would appear that the government is at last coming to the realization that all is not well in the field of labor today," Mr. Berg stated, "and the labor union is not good throughout the country and the daily-daily methods of the Dominion government in dealing with labor disputes is far from provoking labor into the position that its responsible officers will have to go to the government and withdraw its no-strike pledge."

The following committee was appointed to meet Hon. Mr. Manning, Carl E. Berg, J. Wallin, A. Young, J. Hampson and J. Langlet.

Consumers' League Studies Egg Prices

Report of H. E. Nichols, secretary Alberta Farmers' Union, concerning the price spread of eggs, was the basis of considerable discussion at the monthly meeting of the Edmonton Consumers' League, held in the public library Monday evening. Views on production and distribution costs of that product were also aired. Aid. Guy Patterson was chairman.

Other topics under discussion were the milk situation and the report of Dr. Mary Hunter, nutritionist, who told of a visit to several Edmonton bakeries and her inquiry in the use of Vitamin B and Canada Approved flour. A very small percentage of bread made from the latter flour was being bought, she said.

A special feature of the evening was a "Consumer Quiz" arranged by Dr. Geneva Miesner and Mrs. F. C. Butterworth, in which everyone participated.

RATION CARD SABOTAGE
LONDON.—(CPI)—Word from Stockholm is to the effect that the Germans to prevent the use of loquacious ration cards dropped by the R.A.F., are restamping all cards.

This is the symbol of the new Victory Loan.

It was chosen because this year FOUR has very special meanings...

It is the Fourth year of the war...

We fight for Four Freedoms...

This is Canada's Fourth Victory Loan!

The symbol IV is made up of two characters, the Morse code "V" and the letter "V"—the "V" that signals "Victory" to free men all the world over. Wearing this emblem will mean that you have bought the new Victory Bonds, sent your dollars into the fight. It will mean that you, too, can say proudly, "I stand for Victory!"

WEAR THIS EMBLEM where others can see it!

When you buy bonds, you will be given this emblem to wear. Make a special point of wearing it all the time, as long as the Victory Loan drive lasts. This way you can help sell more Victory Bonds.

The "Sign of Four" is something to be proud of—a sign that you have done your bit—a silent reminder to others to do theirs!

Labor Unions Pledge Support For War Loan

Organized labor in Edmonton Monday night pledged the fullest co-operation and support to the Fourth Victory Loan in a resolution passed unanimously by delegates to the Trades and Labor Council.

It was announced by a delegate from the Carpenters' Union that at a recent executive meeting it was decided to invest $1,000 of union funds in the forthcoming loan.

President Sidney Parsons stated he was "extremely pleased that the resolution had come spontaneously from the floor of the meeting, and expressed his appreciation of the attitude of local unions, as expressed through their delegates to the Trades and Labor Council."

DUTY OF LABOR
He said that "despite the existing labor situation that exists here it was the duty of every labor man to give the fullest support to the loan. Nothing less than 100 per cent co-operation in buying and donating can achieve the quota set for Edmonton and bring victory to the state."

Al Young, business agent for the Beverage Dispensers' Union, declared the practice recently employed in the city of printing on sidewalks and buildings the slogan "No beer no bonds."

He said the union he represented endorsed this slogan which he termed "might be circulated by enemy agents in an attempt to hurt the sale of Victory Bonds."

Jim Flower, delegate to the Trades and Labor Council for the Brewery Workers, also was critical of the slogan which he said far from representing the feeling of the workers in the brewery industry.

Before the Magistrate

George Garrett had a smile for anyone who did not seem perturbed by the fact that he was docked in city police court charged with three offences—keeping liquor for sale, illegal possession of a gun and assault. His face lit up with a smile as he pleaded guilty to the first charge, while his counsel reserved the plea on the other charges. The case was remanded until April 29, and the accused pleaded on $1,000 bail and one surety.

He was smiling as he left the dock.

Douglas Ray Grant's charge of assault was waived without a trial. The court was told that he had admitted the case for $1,000 bail and one surety.

Robert A. McFarlane told the court he had only started to drive the truck which had been involved in an accident on Monday. It was not his truck and he did not know the brakes were defective. When he was told of the dangerous driving he was charged with, he said he was not responsible.

Four persons charged with intoxication were each fined $20 and costs of 25 cents. One, had and hearing, had the charge dropped. Still hard of hearing, he was asked several times if he understood the court, before shaking his head. Alcohol found on the person for rubbing purposes, he said.

For using insulting language within the city, Henry J. Hill and Herbert Spence were each fined $5 and costs or five days.

Towns Are Helping To Thresh Crops

In response to a letter recently sent to the boards of trade by Robert Gardiner, president of the United Farmers of Alberta, appeals to the businessmen and residents of the towns and villages to lend every possible assistance to complete threshing operations in the town of Hanna is closing all the town's all day Wednesday until threshing operations are completed. Members of the board of trade are going out without wages to help with threshing until harvesting is finished.

The town of Stettler is closing its stores all day Wednesday and Friday each week and other businesses until threshing is completed. It is believed that the town is taking similar action.

It is hoped that other towns and cities will follow suit as it will be of inestimable value to the farmers whose crops have suffered such damage through long in the fields this winter. Assistance was given last fall by businessmen and residents of urban centres.

Slow Easter Bunny's Activities

There will be fewer upset Easter bunnies this year. Good news for mothers, but a shame in some ways for the youngsters is the fact that the Easter bunny will be a war casualty. That's indirectly, of course, owing to the extreme shortage of all the chocolate and candy do-dos that appear annually about this time.

Packing Plant Workers Delay Vote on Strike

Action to take a strike vote was deferred by members of the Edmonton Packing Plant Employees Union until May 1 and 2, it was announced Tuesday by an executive officer of the union. This action was taken at a mass meeting of packing house workers held Monday night at the Imperial Hall.

The taking of a strike vote was postponed following the assurance from Edmonton Trades and Labor Council officials that a delegation would wait on Hon. C. B. Manning, minister of trade and industry, and chairman of the Regional War Labor Board, seeking a speedy decision on two wage-increase demands now before the board.

The Packing Plant Workers Union submitted a request for a general election in all grades of workers recently, as did the executive of the Beverage Dispensers' Union. Neither union, delegates to the Trades and Labor Council were told Monday night, had been able to get any satisfactory assurance from the Regional War Labor Board that their requests would be dealt with in the near future.

One delegate stated that it appeared that only direct action would bring results, while the other delegates, who were impatient at the delay and had asked that a strike vote be taken immediately.

Urges Members Civil Service To Co-Operate

Addressing a regular meeting of the Civil Service Credit Union in the Legislative Buildings Monday evening, Hon. Solon E. Low, minister of labor, urged members to spread their doctrine of "absolute true co-operation" until the credit union is one of the finest and best organizations known, said Mr. Low. "It teaches the members of the credit union that they are not just getting through it, but they are getting through it with the best of them."

He praised the plan evolved by the credit union, which will be granted for the purpose of buying Victory Bonds. "Through this plan, I feel confident that many people who otherwise could not have bought a bond will be enabled to participate in the forthcoming loan campaign."

He said that the habits of thrift which were inculcated through membership in a credit union were of benefit to every person through life. "Serving is a habit that must be learned," he said.
